

DATA SLICER VISUAL

Efficiently filtering your data in Power BI reports

Optimise your data analysis with the Data Slicer Visual for Power BI reports. Easily filter huge data sets with up to 30,000 elements with a user-friendly interface and intuitive "Quick Menu" for maximum efficiency.

PRODUCT OVERVIEW

Bulk Insert allows you to seamlessly import values from spreadsheet programmes such as Excel or any list format. Our Quick Menu feature offers simplicity, speed and elegance, designed for effortless operation and intuitive buttons for key functions. Stay informed and in control with our interactive frame function, which provides clear signals regarding the application of filters. The responsive design offers an optimised viewing and interaction experience by seamlessly adapting the layout.

ADDITIONAL FEATURES

- Filter based on a column of data with up to 30,000 items
- Support of multilingualism in a semantic model
- Synchronized filtering in the Power BI report across multiple pages
- Filter operators such as „In“ (include) and „Not In“ (exclude)
- Various separators (line break, space, comma, semicolon, pipe) for easy data entry
- Variety of formatting options to integrate the data visual into any layout of a report
- Filter apply logic „onButton“ and „onExit“ control the time of filtering on the data
- The shortcut „Ctrl + Enter“ also triggers the filtering of the data

